

The case of TS Builder Pte Ltd who collected kickbacks to guarantee employment

A migrant worker from the company reported to MOM that he and several others had $100 deducted from their monthly salary as a guarantee for their continued employment

The penalties

For collecting kickbacks, the employer/company was fined $105,000 – more than 20 times the amount of kickbacks collected – and barred from applying or renewing work passes

What migrant workers should do if they are paying kickbacks

Step 1

Take note of the payment details (e.g. when, how much, who it was paid to)

If possible, collect documents, screenshots of text messages, photos or videos

Step 2

Report to MOM:

- Approach any ACE officer at the dormitory
- Consult MOM via Zoom at www.mom.gov.sg/make-appt-zoom
- Call MOM at 6438 5122
- Walk in to MOM Services Centre at 1500 Bendemeer Road, Singapore 339946

Report kickbacks practices. Help yourself and your colleagues

Migrant workers with a valid claim will be referred to selected Employment Agencies. They will help you find a new job

